

I am writing in support of KLOVE radio. It is a great source of inspiration to me and my family with its uplifting and positive music. I don't want to see it replaced on the airwaves by the new LPFM stations. KLOVE reaches out to the whole community and provides many important services during their broadcasts.